ORDER

At Wilmington this 16th day of June, 2008, having reviewed defendants' motion to compel Nancy Doe to submit to an independent medical examination, and the papers filed in connection therewith;

IT IS ORDERED that said motion (D.I. 62) is granted, as follows: There shall be no restrictions put in place by the court, other than requiring that Dr. Kaye be present during the examination. (D.I. 65 at footnote 6) Dr. Kaye shall not interfere with the examination in any way. If he should find the examination to be contrary to appropriate medical practices, he shall ask for a break and arrange, through counsel, for a telephone conference with the court.
